Mathura, June 13 (PTI) In a bid to attract international tourists, the Centre has decided to develop a "Krishna Circuit" consisting of five places related to Lord Krishna in Mathura, Union Minister Mahesh Sharma said.

"The Government has decided to develop a Krishna Circuit from Akshar Dham in Delhi to Brijbhumi in five stages.

'Brij Chaurasi Kos Parikrama' would also be given a facelift after a demarcation of the area," Union Minister for Tourism Mahesh Sharma told reporters on the sidelines of an event yesterday.

"The Krishna circuit would consist of Mathura-Vrindaban, Goverdhan, Nandgaon-Barsana, Dauji-Gokul and Mant mini- circuits.

After the demarcation of Chaurasi Kos Parikrama, its infra-structure would be developed.. Separate roads would be constructed from Expressway to Mathura and Vrindaban," Sharma said.

The Union government is contemplating to establish airport very close to Yamuna Express way, he said, adding that the infra-structure would be developed from airport to Tajmahal.
